Key Features of reviti Term Life

These Key Features are a summary of reviti Term Life. The full Terms and Conditions are on pages 5 to 8.

reviti Term Life is a life insurance policy issued by Scottish Friendly.

Its aims are:

- To provide your family with a Lump Sum if you die within the Policy Term.
- To provide you with a Lump Sum if we accept you have been diagnosed with a Terminal Illness which meets our definition within the Policy Term.

Your commitment

- To decide on the right amount of cover for you, both at outset and at any future point.
- Choose from two types of cover; level and decreasing cover. If you choose level cover the amount of cover will stay the same. It might be chosen in order for example to protect your family's lifestyle, your debts or funeral costs. If you choose decreasing cover the amount of cover will reduce during the period of cover. Decreasing cover is often used to help protect a repayment mortgage.
- Pay a fixed amount each month (the Monthly Premium) throughout the entire Policy Term to remain eligible for a Lump Sum payment in the event a Claim is made during the Policy Term.
- Give us accurate, complete and true information, to the best of your knowledge, when completing your application for your Policy.
- To check the Application Summary and Policy Schedule we send you after you take out the Policy, and to let us know straight away if anything is wrong.

Risks

- We will cancel your policy if you are more than 30 days late in paying a Monthly Premium.
- Your policy has no cash-in value at any time.
- If you don't provide accurate, complete and true information it may affect how we review a Claim. We may either not pay, or may pay, a reduced amount. Scottish Friendly has the right to request medical records to verify a Claim.
- If you choose level cover and intend to use this Policy to protect a mortgage, you may find it provides more or less cover than you need to pay off the outstanding mortgage debt, as your Lump Sum is fixed. The Lump Sum payment will not increase with inflation and this means that, over time, the buying power of your Lump Sum payment will reduce.
- If you choose decreasing cover and intend to use this Policy to protect a mortgage, you may find it provides more or less cover than you need to pay off your outstanding mortgage debt, as the Lump Sum payable reduces in line with an annual repayment mortgage rate of 8%.
- If your mortgage interest rate is more than 8%, or your mortgage changes in any way, then our Decreasing Life Insurance may not clear the outstanding mortgage debt. You should therefore check that the interest rate applied to your repayment mortgage by your lender is less than this.
- When thinking about the cover you apply for you should consider that you have the right level of cover for your current and future needs. It's important that you review your cover regularly to make sure it still meets your needs.
- Depending on your financial circumstances, and whether this policy is put in Trust at the time, the Lump Sum on death or diagnosis of terminal illness may be subject to inheritance tax.

Questions & answers

How much will my Policy cost?

When you apply for reviti Term Life, Scottish Friendly will calculate a Monthly Premium based on your age, how much cover you want, how long you want it for and answers to all of the questions asked including information that is required about your health and lifestyle. This will be the Monthly Premium you need to pay for the full Policy Term to be eligible to make a Claim.

How much cover can I have?

You can have as many reviti Term Life policies as you like with Scottish Friendly, subject to underwriting, up to the maximum amount of cover which depends on your age at Policy Commencement Date as shown below:

Age (when your policy starts)	Maximum amount of cover
18 - 40	£750,000
41 – 50	£500,000
51 – 60	£300,000
61 – 65	£150,000
66 – 70	£100,000
71 - 75	£50,000
76 – 80	£25,000

The minimum sum assured is £10,000. Should you take out further reviti Term Life Policies with Scottish Friendly which increases your Sum Assured to more than these maximum amounts at the age you take out the additional Policy or Policies, then they will be cancelled by us and the additional premiums will be refunded to you.

Can I change the level of cover?

Once set up, it is possible to reduce your level of cover at any time (which will change the premium you pay) but you will not be able to increase your cover under this Policy.

When will Scottish Friendly pay out a Lump Sum under this Policy?

The policy will pay out if you die or have been diagnosed with a terminal illness that meets the Scottish Friendly definition.

The Policy will end after a Lump Sum payment is made, when you stop paying the premiums or the end of the Policy Term is reached.

When won't Scottish Friendly pay out a Lump Sum under this Policy?

Scottish Friendly will not pay a Lump Sum if you have stopped paying your Monthly Premiums. Your Policy will be cancelled if you are more than 30 days late in paying a Monthly Premium. Your life cover will stop which means no Lump Sum will be paid if you die or are diagnosed with a terminal illness and you won't get any money back.

Scottish Friendly will not pay any Lump Sum under the Policy after the end of the Policy Term.

If you die or are diagnosed with a Terminal Illness, Scottish Friendly may investigate the circumstances of your death or illness when assessing the Claim, including obtaining access to your medical records.

If you didn't answer all the questions in your Application accurately and with reasonable care, then your Policy Terms may be reviewed, which may include cancelling your Policy and refunding your premiums with no Lump Sum payable.

That's why it's important you answer all questions in your Application accurately, with reasonable care, and check the Application Summary and Policy Schedule when you receive them for accuracy.

This Policy will be cancelled if you die as a result of taking your own life within the first year of the Policy. In this event, the Lump Sum won't be paid but we will refund the premiums paid.

Can I cancel my Policy?

When you take out your Policy you will receive a welcome pack, you will then have 30 days to change your mind and cancel it. If you decide to do this, you'll receive a refund of the premiums paid and your life cover will be cancelled immediately.

Will I be taxed on my Policy or Lump Sum?

Payments from this Policy will generally be free of all UK income tax and capital gains tax but may be subject to inheritance tax depending on the value of your estate when you die and whether this policy is put in Trust. Taxation information is issued on the basis of our understanding of current tax law and practice and may change in the future.

How do you go about making a Claim under the Policy?

In the event of a Claim, your representatives should contact us – see 'Contacting Scottish Friendly' section. Scottish Friendly will then issue a Claim form and information pack.
